

Dear Members and Friends,

We are happy to inform you that NUCC will this spring organize the 4th version of our Young Entrepreneurs Program. Deadline for applying is February 5th 2018.

“Young Entrepreneurs” is a business-educational program. The aim is to bring together ambitious business-minded Norwegians and Ukrainians with one thing in common: Their passion for taken part in the business cooperation between Norway and Ukraine

During two intensive weeks, one in Norway and one in Ukraine, twenty participants will get a first-hand guidance on creating and doing business in and between Norway and Ukraine. Throughout the program, the participants visit several Norwegian and Ukrainian businesses, meet with relevant authorities and NGOs focusing on Business Ethics, Good Corporate Governance and Anti-Corruption. Moreover, the candidates will work with concrete business cases that have the potential to lead to real business – as they did in three previous years.

You can find more information about the Young Entrepreneurs Program and how to apply on www.nucc.no
